

FAMILIES IN MACROECONOMICS

Dates: September 18–19, 2026

Location: London School of Economics and Political Science, London, UK

This workshop will bring together micro- and macroeconomists working on the economics of the family. We are interested in topics relevant to developed as well as developing countries. We welcome theoretical, empirical, and quantitative contributions on the subject, including field experiments. Papers that combine evidence and formal modelling are particularly welcome.

Preference will be given to papers that have not been extensively presented already. Submission of extended abstracts is acceptable, as long as the authors anticipate having a draft available by the time of the workshop.

Travel and accommodation costs for presenters will be covered.

Submission deadline: April 30, 2026

Please send your papers to familymacro.2026@gmail.com
